VIDEO NEWS RELEASE
A Unified Approach to Public Safety

Bismarck, ND – In today's Know the Truth video, officials within the North Dakota Emergency Operations Center explain how local, state, federal and tribal agencies gather every week to ensure a unified approach to public safety during the Dakota Access Pipeline protest activity. The effort is "bigger than law enforcement," says Morton County Sheriff Kyle Kirchmeier. The agencies meet to discuss plans and unfolding events in order to support the overall mission of providing resources to Morton County.
